THE LOXAHATCHEE CLUB, Jupiter, FL

Nestled along the oak canopied streets of The Loxahatchee Club in Jupiter, FL, lies this beautifully crafted new construction home by Maxwell Building and Kara Miller Interiors. Attention to detail was paramount in constructing this concrete block home with hurricane rated impact windows and doors. The architecture is British West Indies with a flat cement tile roof and double mahogany entry doors. Inside you will find marble in the main living areas, white custom shaker cabinets in the kitchen, quartz countertops with a mitered edge, and professional series paneled appliances. The trim package is better than most homes three times this price point with built-in cabinetry in the great room and many of the bedrooms...In the master bathroom, you find an open concept with an oversized frameless glass shower, free-standing contemporary tub, custom cabinetry, and quartz vanity tops. All closets come with custom-designed built-ins for clothing, accessories, and shoes. The Guest Suites are ample, cozy, and warm, all with walk-in closets and ensuite baths. This home is new and will be ready for occupancy in April of 2021.
